Mother's advice is worth more than the advice of any other woman to the daughter who is perplexed by the problems of physical health and comfort. There's no need therefore to "write to a woman," who is a stranger.

There may, however, be need for a physician's advice to supplement the advice of the mother. In such a case the offer of free consultation by letter, made by Dr. Pierce, opens the way to health, and at the same time avoids the unpleasant questioning, the repulsive examinations and offensive local treatments which less experienced physicians often insist on.

Any sick or ailing woman is invited to write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, in the strictest privacy. Each letter is held as a sacred confidence and its answer is sent in a plain envelope, bearing no printing upon it.

Do not be misled by advertisements offering "medical advice," which are published by those who do not being physicians are not qualified to give such advice. Any physician or doctor who has a legal and professional right to the title will publicly claim that title. Those who offer "medical advice" and invite you to "write to a woman" do not claim that the woman is a doctor. The "medical advice" of an unprofessional woman is just as dangerous as the "medical advice" of an unprofessional man. In more than thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff of nearly a score of medical specialists, have successfully treated over half a million women. You can write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE,
No. 124 PUTNAM STREET.

Oh, yes, I'm delighted with my visit. Aunt's such a lovely old soul, always tagging after one to see that you miss none of the little home comforts one so appreciates and so seldom feels the blessing of other than when within one's own self-arranged compartments, but aunt, why, she really makes a study of her guests' tastes and desires to such an extent that even my little bedroom was so arranged that it conformed so perfectly with mine at home in such a manner of reality that the dainty little rug at my bed-side seemed to bear the imprint of my knees, and the bath-room, oh, I feel refreshed to even think of it, so cleanly, so refreshingly sweet, and how perfectly arranged, with all the desired requisites, fresh cloth and chamber skin, nail brush, bath brush, complexion brush and hair brush; and such brushes, all glittering white bristles, no sticky, splintery splinters of wood; and soap, oh, how delightful to bathe with good pure soap; but dearie, the sweetest thing, and oh, I just loved it, so soft and soothing, why, my body fairly quivered with delight from the tender touch of its caress; oh, that sponge, that sponge—oh, here's my train—goodbye dearie, don't forget to stop on your way home and tell Will Richardson, the Cut Rate Druggist on Greene street, to ship those goods by first express, especially that large, good-enough-to-eat sponge we talked about in the window.

Stand of Railroaders.

No class of people so much appreciate the changed conditions of this and four years ago as the railroad men. Everywhere the railroad employees are whooping up the fight for McKinley this year; everywhere they are lining up solidly for a retention of the conditions that today are permitting them to make at least a third more each month than at this time four years ago. A case in point may be mentioned where it will bear personal investigation by any reader of this article. Perhaps no man on the Pennsylvania railroad is better known than Conductor Jerry Taylor, of the local division. In a conversation the other day, enroute to Columbus, Taylor made a striking comparison. "Four years ago," he said, "we were only allowed to make twenty-six days a month, never more, and often less than that. We were held and sent out in turn so that every fellow would have an equal chance. Today we are enabled without particular effort to make as many as thirty-three and four days a month and we cannot get a vacation under any conditions. The same is true, and more emphatic, with the brakemen and engineers and in every department of railroad work the earnings have increased nearly one-third the past three years." This is a condition that speaks for itself; it is a condition that makes the railroad vote solid for McKinley and leads to the placing of many a dollar, saved during the past three years, upon the chances of the re-election of the champion of prosperity.—Urbana Citizen.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

McKINLEY, WE'LL VOTE FOR YOU.

Air: Red, White and Blue.
McKinley, the pride of the nation!
Our leader undaunted and true;
The hero of our veneration,
Allegiance we gladly renew!
By virtue of ties never sundered,
By love for the red, white and blue,
By the guns that for freedom have thundered,
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!

CHORUS:
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!
By the guns that for freedom have thundered,
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!

Your voice for our welfare has sounded,
The trials of state you have borne;
Your glorious deeds have redounded
And hallowed the path you adorn!
For honesty, justice and reason
And all that impresses the view,
For triumph o'er error and treason,
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!

CHORUS:
With Roosevelt valiantly aiding,
Inspiring your fearless command,
With colors of glory unfading,
A soldier devoted you stand;
So firmly for righteous expansion,
For honor and loyalty, too,
For husbandry in Liberty's mansion,
McKinley, we'll all vote for you!
